8 October 2022

St. Alkmund's Church

PROGRAMME

Mozart Divertimento in E flat, K.563
Dohnanyi Serenade in C, Op. 10

Formed in 2003, The Iuventus Ensemble has been hailed by the Irish Times as "startling" – "Theirs was a purely musical approach – bracing, fearless and utterly engaging." The Strad wrote of their "technical ease, sensitivity to style, elegance in phrasing and excellent intonation" and hailed their rendition of Janacek's First Quartet as "powerfully communicated". In one review, the Iuventus were described as "spellbinding", bringing to the music "great expertise, dedication and superb musicianship".

Newstead Brass

12 November 2022

St. Alkmund's Church

PROGRAMME

The first half of the programme will be built around original works for brass band, including a number of works specially commissioned for major national and international events. The second half of brass 'lollipops' will use transcriptions of pieces from other genres to show the versatility of the 21st Century Brass Band.

Newstead Brass is one of the midland's leading and most versatile brass bands, performing throughout Nottinghamshire, Derbyshire, the East Midlands. It was the highest placed midlands band in the Championship section of the 2018 Bolsover Festival of Brass. It also has an impressive roll of contest prizes and awards as a championship section band from 2000 to 2018.

Ensemble Hesperii

14 January 2023

St. Alkmund's Church

Full of the Highland Humours

This collaborative programme takes listeners on a whirlwind journey into the heart of 18th century Scotland, through infectious folk melodies.

Ensemble Hesperii is a dynamic Early Music ensemble of RCM graduates, dedicated to showcasing the infectious charm and dazzling virtuosity of 18th century music through imaginative programming and cross-art form collaboration. In 2019, the ensemble, with dancer Kathleen Gilbert, toured 'The Pheasant's Eye', a project celebrating Scottish Baroque music and Highland dance, supported by Arts Council England. Among other successes, they were selected as Britten Pears Young Artists for 2020. The ensemble can provide its own excellent harpsichord for performances.

Tom Corfield (organ)

4 March 2023

St. Alkmund's Church

Bruhns Praeludium in E minor
Elgar Vesper Voluntaries, Op. 14
Britten Prelude and Fugue on a theme of Vittoria
Bach Sonata No.3 in D minor, BWV 527
Chilcott Sun Dance
Bridge Allegretto grazioso
Widor Marcia (Symphony No.3)

Tom Corfield was educated at the Royal Academy of Music and the University of East Anglia where he was the Organ Scholar of Norwich Cathedral. There followed four years as assistant to Simon Lindley at Leeds Parish Church and a period of postgraduate study before his move to Derby in 1985 as Assistant Organist at the Cathedral. He teaches for the Open University, he is a rehearsal accompanist for Derby Bach Choir and the Dalesmen Male-Voice Choir, and since 2021 he has been Organist of St Anne's Anne's Church in the west end of Derby.

Schumann Fantasiestücke, Op. 12
Scriabin Sonata No. 4 in F sharp major, Op. 30
Beethoven Piano Sonata in G major, Op. 31 No. 1
Brahms 7 Fantasias, Op. 116

Rose McLachlan began piano lessons with her father and entered Chetham's School of Music in 2010. She was the overall winner of the 2016 Scottish International Youth Prize. As winner of the Chetham's concerto competition in February 2018, Rose was selected to perform the Ravel G major concerto with the Chetham's symphony orchestra. Rose is now at the RNCM, continuing her studies with Helen Krizos
